

As an active amateur radio hobbyist, I am strongly against the introduction of any Broadband over Power Line systems in the United States.